It is very important that Coffee County gardeners and others apply the right insecticide. If the label on the container or package does not recomme it on a certain crop, by al means do not use it.

DEPRESSED PRICES Fred Hataway of Route

One, Kinston went into the hog business a couple of years ago. He has expanded and was making some money until the low hog prices. The other night at the hog shortcourse Hataway said, "You know when hogs are high, my old sows farrow and wean just four or five pigs; but now that the price is low each sow is farrowing and weaning 12 to 15 pigs. Speaking of the ho shortcourse, we had 30 in terested growers there last Tuesday night. Incidentall Dr. Tom High of our Auburn University staff told us that some economists were predicting that low prices for hogs will be one of the shortest periods of low prices in the last several years. In other words they are looking for things to get better later in the spring. As someone said the other night, "About the way they can go is up.'

Hundreds of Coffee County families have an oportunity to improve their omes. Bill Ray, Farmers Home Administration supervisor in Enterprise, says that his agency's housing program is designed for people who want to improve their housing. Everyone knows that we have a lot of poor housing in Coffee County. I think this program being conducted by the Farmers Home Administration i probably one of the finest programs for farm and rural people during the past 30 or 40 years. I surely

This week I am going to tattle on the police of Elba just a little. They are really using that radar to check speeding drivers. If you are in the habit of driving faster than the speed limit, get ready to go to court because your time is coming.

I did not vote for Jim Allen in his successful bid for the U.S. Senate several years ago. However, this does not stop me from saying "Wel Done' to his getting the upper hand of Arkansas's Senator (halfbrite) Fulbright just before Chrismas. It seems Fulbright was trying to filibuster against something or another and Allen called attention to the fact that Senate rules were being broken. This upset the Senator Fulbright and he said so but Allen was not to be bluffed and halfbrite Fulbright was beaten at a game of which he considered himself the master. Thanks Senator Allen.

Marvin McCollough didn't need the rescue squad recently, but by the noise he was making his deer hunting friends thought he was in bad trouble. The only thing happening was that Marvin had killed his first deer and was a bit excited. I won't try to tell how it happened, Marvin would enjoy doing that himself!

Well, the Supreme Court has ruled and allowed 18 year olds to vote in national elections. I was against this but since it is now the law, Let's pass a law allowing them to vote in any election. They are just as qualified to elect a county commissioner or city councilman as they are a president or senator and it would save a whole heap of confusion.

The Fountain, Colorado, Security Advertiser has this recipe for a successful achievement . . . 'Chose a career you love . . . Give it the best there is in you . . . Seize your opportunities . . . And be a member of the team. In no Country but America, we believe, is it possible to fulfill all four of these requirements.'

Shorty Martin has come in for his share of kidding during the past several weeks. His friends are wondering just what is happening to him. First, Shorty let his closely cut hair grow out long enough to part . . . next, he finally gave the OK and his home is being remodeled to the delight of his family . . . and the final shock was when Martin's ran a big merchandise ad in The Elba Clipper during December! Well, I can only talk about the ad and say that even though they were overworked during the Christmas season, Shorty wanted everyone to know he would like to make just one more sale and I am expecting him to issue other reminders to the Clipper readers during 1971.

That reminds me of a little catchy phrase I saw this morning. "Not advertising is like winking at a pretty girl in the dark. You know what you are doing but no one else does." I rest my

If I have any readers who are Johnny Unitas fans this should make them good and mad! The best thing that happened to the Baltimore Colts in the Super Bowl was when their star quarterback, J.
